PRESENTS

THE FIRST EXCLUSIVE
CAPSULE COLLECTION

“PEACE, LUXE AND ROCK AND ROLL”

Music and fashion have always been intricately intertwined. The eBay x WGACA Peace, Luxe and Rock and Roll special capsule includes incredible items that symbolize music's influence on fashion, and illustrate how trends and styles have evolved over genres, generations and decades. From musical movements and summer concerts to the emergence of festival season, each piece represents important moments in culture.

To bring the campaign and rock theme to life, eBay and What Goes Around Comes Around tapped IT girls and rock-royalty siblings Theodora and Alexandra Richards, the daughters of Supermodel Patti Hanes and legendary Rolling Stones guitarist Keith Richards. With music and fashion in the sisters' DNA, and their successful careers as DJs and models elevating their style, Alexandra and Theodora were a natural embodiment of the collection: a mix of 'Rock and Royal Royalty' and effortless, modern style comprising one-of-a-kind items, designer pieces, ready-to-wear and accessories that are all conversation starters.
