President, StubHub

Scott Cutler leads StubHub, the leading global fan-to-fan marketplace. He oversees a team of more than 800 people based in the U.S., Europe, and China.

Scott, who joined in April 2015, is a seasoned executive with extensive global business experience and a belief in the transforming power of technology.

He joined eBay after nine years as an Executive Vice President at the New York Stock Exchange, one of the world's largest financial marketplaces. He brought with him tremendous experience operating a technology-enabled marketplace at scale and managing a complex network of customers, partners, and influencers. At the NYSE, as at StubHub, his role was all about the community, the marketplace, and the platform.

During his tenure, he helped transform the NYSE to become the number one global exchange and the destination for the most innovative technology companies around the world to raise capital. He was responsible for over $1 trillion in capital raised, and helped take some of the world's iconic brands in the last decade public.

Prior to his career at the NYSE, Scott spent several years in investment banking focused on the software and Internet industries. He started his career as a corporate securities lawyer.

Scott has a BS degree in Economics from Brigham Young University and a Juris Doctor from the University of California, Hastings College of Law. He believes in giving back to the community and serves on the boards of several non-profit organizations, including Madison Square Boys and Girls Club, the Mental Health Association of New York City, BritishAmerican Business, and is a trustee on the National Advisory Committee for his alma mater BYU.

His professional and personal lives collide in a love of sports and the outdoors - he runs, skis, climbs, cycles, and surfs. He has completed more than a dozen marathons, crossed the Alps on skis, and ridden several stages of the Tour de France. He is an avid SF Giants fan. He has been married to his wife Melissa for almost 19 years and they have four kids.

SCOTT'S FAVORITE EBAY EXPERIENCE:

"My favorite eBay experience was buying a pair of GS racing skis on eBay and then beating former World Cup alpine ski racer Phil Mahre in a televised amateur ski race."
