

Below we've rounded up the Top 100 products across six different categories – based on top searched for and purchased items across eBay – to give you the ultimate Christmas Gifting Hitlist for 2016.

KIDS TOYS

“For the first time in years we are seeing toys that don't rely on a screen trending in greater numbers for Christmas. There is a real sense of nostalgia amongst the hot products – the old favourites are back, rebooted with more functionality than ever before.

The Pokémon craze has kept the nostalgic fires burning and we'll see a lot of parents buying up big in this space, looking to recreate the magic for their little ones that they felt the first time this trend came around.”

“ The cheap and cheeky Speak Out is going to be the stand out gift for anyone who's ever hosted a dinner party this Christmas. We've seen a huge spike in searches for this product over the past few weeks and expect it to keep sky rocketing. It's this year's Cards Against Humanity. ”

A PERSONALISED TOUCH

“ Personalisation in the form of monogramming, photo transfers and 3D printing is being offered on everything from wallets to surfboards this Christmas on a scale that just didn't exist last year. It's the answer to every gifting dilemma you've ever had and is my number one trend prediction for thoughtful gifters! ”

“ My kitchen definitely rules this Christmas! There is no excuse not to join the wellness brigade when you have a beautiful KitchenAid Mini making eyes at you every morning. Getting active is a key gifting trend again – but it's a little softer this year with a focus on yoga, stretching and low impact activities. ”
